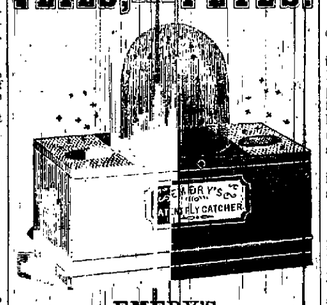
FLIES,---FLIES.



EMERY'S

Great American Fly Catcher.

Patented May 1, 1866, by Jas. Emery.

Manufactured and sold by

SEAVEY & CO.,

Nos. 83 and 85, Blackstone Street, Boston.

THIS is the greatest invention of the age for destroying that great pest, the House Fly, which is so annoying to every household and destructive to goods displayed in show windows, Hotel and Saloon Tables should be ornamented with them—thereby doing away with that unclean appearance too often observed.

There has been heretofore objections raised against the use of Fly Paper on account of its unclean appearance, together with the trouble it occasions by the dead flies dropping about into every thing. Now by this truly elegant invention, these great objections are entirely done away with. The flies are all collected within the Catcher, giving a neat and wholesome appearance to the premises where used.

In stores where goods are exhibited and exposed to the damaging influence of the fly, this invention cannot be over estimated.

THE SICK ROOM

Is rendered more comfortable, and the patient requires less attendance. The infant can take his nap in peace.

Mothers, no nursery should be without its Fly Catcher.

Watch Makers, Engravers, Artists, and all other persons engaged in delicate employment, will find them an indispensable article for their rooms—another great consideration is its cheapness and durability—for 50 or 75 cents, according to style, you have a Fly Destroyer that will last an age.

TRY ONE AND YOU WILL BE SATISFIED.

The Catcher's have been recently improved by adding a perforated bottom and lower entrance.—The Catchers are warranted to catch a host of flies, or no sale.

Arrangements will soon be made for their sale in all cities and towns in the country.

Orders sent to SEAVEY & CO., will be answered promptly.

Canvassers will find this the best selling article for the next four months ever invented.

DIRECTIONS:

Fill one dish with molasses, place over it its perforated cover: in the other dish put a small piece of fly paper moistened with sweetened water—Place these dishes within the trap. A common tumbler is to be used as a dome over the centre opening at the top. The flies after entering being separated from the bait will eat the poison, and die thereby destroyed. For sale by

B. F. BRADBURY, No. 8 Smith's Block,

And by J. E. PATTEN & CO., No. 1 Granite Block

TELEGRAPHIC.

Despatches to the Evening Times.

The Fishery Question—War with the United States Deprecated—Great Excitement in London—Supposed Attempt to Blow up the Houses of Parliament.

NEW YORK, Aug 11.

The Herald's Ottawa special says:

The tariff bills of the financial scheme have both passed Parliament in a modified form.

In discussing the fishery question the Attorney General said the concession recently made to American fishermen was necessary to prevent war with the United States.

Mr. Brown said he would prefer war to making the concession.

Mr. Dowtown said the fortifications erected for security of Canada against an invasion from the United States were useless and their erection nothing but folly. The entire session was excited and disorderly.

NEW YORK, Aug 11.

The steamer Daniel Webster from Vera Cruz is at lower quarantine.

A special Raleigh, N. C., telegram states that the returns from 23 counties give for the Constitution 5188 votes; against it 6258. Sixty-two counties are to be heard from—result doubtful.

The Tribune's Harrisburg despatch reports an attack on the train containing Governor Curtin, Gov. Geary and ladies, and a party of soldiers. Firearms were discharged, and stones and other missiles were thrown at the train. Several soldiers were wounded. The train was stopped and the soldiers went after the attacking party, who fled.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.

The Herald's special despatch from London 9th over the cable, says:

There is great excitement here this evening at a supposed attempt to blow up the two Houses of Parliament. Ten packages of gunpowder, with a fuse partially burned, were found near the entrance to Gen. Chamberlain's office, in the House of Lords. The members of Parliament have a visions of another Guy Fawkes' plot.

The deaths from cholera in London during last week numbered 1053, and from diarrhea 354.

Additional Foreign News, per Cable.

Berlin, Aug. 8—p. m. Gen. Manteuffel having attended the military council, and had favorable audience of the King, left yesterday on a special mission to St. Petersburg. Referring to it, the semi-official journal, Provincial Correspondencia, of this evening, says:

"Russia by her position as a great power, and also on account of her numerous family ties with the German Courts, takes lively interest in the German question.

The relations subsisting between Russia and Prussia might suggest to Russia the expediency and desirability of making communication to the Cabinet in Berlin in relation to views entertained by the Czar's government upon the recent steps adopted by Prussia.

The apprehensions respecting the attitude attributed to Russia by certain German journals will, in all probability, speedily proved to be groundless."

The same journal hopes the Prussian Legislature, however, by passing a bill of indemnity, will end the conflict with the government.

Herr Kuhl and Baron Vaerst are re-elected members from Berlin to the Legislative Chamber.

The Chamber of Deputies have voted that the order of the Black Eagle be conferred on Gens. Von Roon and Baron Moltke.

Yesterday, in the upper house of the Legislature, a letter was received from the Count of Westphalia declaring his oath of allegiance with the King of Prussia, and his duty as a federal Prince no longer binding on him, since his majesty had withdrawn from the German confederation.

The municipal authorities of Berlin have presented an address to the Crown Prince of Prussia sympathizing with him in his affliction caused by the death of his infant son, and eulogized him for his military achievement in behalf of Prussia.

The Crown Prince, in returning thanks, painted hopes of Prussia and the nation.

Florence, Aug. 8th. There was a severe storm on the Adriatic yesterday, by which several vessels of the Italian fleet were damaged.

The Italian iron ram "Affondatore" was was sunk in the port of Avenona; crew saved.

The term of suspension of hostilities has been prolonged.

The peace regulations between Austria and Italy will take place at Prague.

Count Bairol and General Monalse will be the Italian Plenipotentiaries.

Paris, 8th. The Chevaliers Negra and Artoni have returned.

The Emperor expects, it is supposed, partly to retain his connection with the present condition of Italian affairs.

The rumor of the increase of effective strength of the French army at Algiers is denied.

The Empress of Mexico arrived at St Mozaro to-day.

An Imperial steamer, and Eugenie, is going to meet her to-morrow.

Madrid, 8th. The payment of taxes in advance is continued, and the government expects to balance its assets with the bank of Spain before Sept. 15th.

Queenstown, 8th. The steamship City of Paris, from New York 28th, for Liverpool, arrived here on the 7th inst.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.

The steamer Stars and Stripes at Philadelphia brings Havana dates of the 4th.

Several extensive fires had occurred in Havana.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT. The Hartford (Conn.) Courant of Thursday says that a dangerous counterfeit of the denomination of $5 on the 1st National Bank of Newburyport, Mass., has made its appearance in that city. The face of the bill, though somewhat coarsely, is well done. The flags in the background are quite faint, as also are the coat of arms of Massachusetts on the left, and the eagle on the right. It can easily be detected by close examination. As yet the detectors make no mention of this counterfeit.

The Empress Eugenie has placed the chateau of Longchine at the disposal of the authorities of Lyons, as a convalescent hospital for cholera patients. A Paris correspondent writes: "At Nancy, as at Amiens, the Empress was to be found at an early hour by the bedside of the hospital patients, in the orphan asylum and in the house of correction for juvenile offenders. She crossed on foot a populous part of the city, followed by a crowd who aloud called her saint, and several of the poorest of the people in their excitement actually tore her muslin dress.—The shreds were picked up and eagerly struggled for. The Empress smilingly permitted this destruction of her dress. At the Juvenile Reformatory the little prisoners sobbed as they listened to her words of encouragement, and it is said the impression made by her touching kindness has been most beneficial. At the hospital the physicians in attendance, perceiving her evident fatigue, took her by a short cut, thus avoiding several wards. When the Empress arrived at the door she felt convinced she had not seen the whole hospital, and, questioning the first physician, made him take her back through the wards she had not visited."

Some philanthropic individual is occupying himself by paying postage upon all letters deposited in the St. Louis post office, where the writers have neglected to affix the requisite stamps. Upon all letters so forwarded the following printed notification is pasted:

"This Letter was detained in the post office at St. Louis, Mo., on the account of the non-payment of postage.

One who realizes how important it may be to have letters forwarded immediately has placed the necessary stamps upon this letter.

To repay him, please send postage stamps of equal value, addressed to

'GOOD WILL,' St. Louis, Mo."

THE LABOR QUESTION SOUTH. A letter from a Georgia farmer says:

"The crop prospects are poor in Middle Georgia. Too much dry weather for the corn, and unless the rains should come soon the cotton will be short. Black labor will not do here, unless the white men work with them, and lead them through. By mixing in one industrious white man to every five or ten of the blacks, they will do nearly as much work as formerly. I and my brother have hired seven hands this year, and cultivate 70 acres in corn and 150 in cotton by working with them. We have no trouble, and with some rain now will make more cotton than the same hands can pick out by Christmas. All able-bodied men in the country must go to work or do worse."

NEGROES VOTING IN TENNESSEE. The Nashville Press and Times says:

"A friend related to us yesterday an interesting scrap of history connected with the first constitution of Tennessee. He was at work on his farm with a stout negro man when an important State election took place. 'Tom,' said our friend, 'you must attend to these logs yourself to-day because I must go to the election.' 'Goll,' replied Tom, 'you just put me in mind of it; I must go and vote too.' So the two started to the polls together.

When they arrived at the polls the politicians seemed as well pleased to see Tom Churchwell, the black voter, as 'any other man,' and the two cast their votes together in perfect peace. This occurred in Wayne county, and as Tom was one of a small number of freedmen the circumstance occasioned some remark, but not one particle of opposition.

Our friend, who subsequently to this occurrence became a considerable slave owner, says that after comparing old times with the present he has determined to take the bull by the horns and go heartily for impartial suffrage. Colored men voted in Tennessee 'in the good old times,' and pray why not again?"

A Washington despatch of the 10th inst., says:

"Considerable excitement is manifested to-day among clerks in various departments, in consequence of an impression, which has become general, that through a clerical error a clause which originally appeared in the miscellaneous appropriation bill, giving to the employees of the government here an increase of 20 per cent on their salaries, was subsequently stricken out in the committee of conference, and that the bill has become a law without that clause. No official opinion has been given by the Attorney General on the subject, and many are disposed to believe, and from reliable sources of information it seems certain that the additional feature does not appear in the manuscript copy of the law now at the State Department."

No CHOLERA IN BOSTON. Dr. William Read, City Physician of Boston, writes: "The city of Boston is entirely free from Asiatic cholera, and has been throughout the season, with a single exception—the case of a soldier who died here on his way from Hart's Island, N. Y., to Manchester, N. H. In this case the thorough eradication of all the sources of contagion, by burning and otherwise disinfecting, prevented the spread of the disease: and it is confidently hoped that similar success may attend like precautions in the future."

The Louisville Journal says of the election of Duvall, the rebel candidate:

Whether Duvall's powerful vote is attributable to the fact that the cry of a coalition with the radicals was everywhere raised against the conservative union party, or to the fact that Kentucky actually is, and has all along been, secretly a pro-rebel or rebel-sympathizing State, we know not. We will, under all circumstances, think as favorably of Kentucky as we can. But her people have not unfrequently gone wrong in elections, and we do not think that they ever went half as wrong before as they appear to have done last Monday.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—There was a great excitement in Cannelton, Ind., on Sunday week. Miss Martha E. Connett and Mr. Pleasant Munroe, both of Pell City, Ind., had eloped thither, but were followed by the indignant father of the young lady, who sought to prevent the marriage. The twain, however, had resolved to become one. They wandered about in search of a clergyman who would tie the knot, followed by the father and a large crowd which had been gathered by the noise of the altercation between them. Finally the couple entered a friend's house, whence the father was now excluded; but he still waited without, determined that they should not emerge without his seeing them. Their forlorn hope in this extremity was a ruse, which succeeded perfectly. A friend sallied forth dressed in the young lady's attire, and surrounded by other friends, and ran up the street, followed by the father and the crowd. Then the young lady came forth dressed in male attire, and afterwards came the bridegroom; they reached a place appointed and were soon married.

—In a dense wood near Oil Springs, Canada, a boy eight years old, son of a working-man named John Cunningham, lost his way a few days ago. His father missing him instituted a search, assisted by some of the neighbors, but a day passed and no clew to him had been found. The people of the village became greatly excited on the subject, and the second day a hundred men volunteered to explore the woods. Still they did not find him. The next day two hundred, and the next day after that three hundred men on foot and on horseback continued the search, and at length one squad of them came suddenly upon him in the heart of the wood, six miles from the village. He had subsisted on berries four days and four nights. A procession of the neighbors who had assisted in the search was formed, and the boy was escorted in triumph into the village.

—Mr. Charles Hemans, son of Mrs. Hemans, the poet, who embraced Romanism several years ago with much enthusiasm and fervor, has lately recanted that faith. It appears that he began a careful investigation of the monuments of Rome, beginning with those of the classical and Pagan period, and then proceeding to the catacombs and early Christian monuments. He entered on this field of study with the fullest persuasion that what he found there would only strengthen and deepen his already strong and fervent attachment to the Roman system. The result of patient, long-continued and earnest investigation has in a striking manner led him to the directly opposite conclusion, and he intends to publish a work on the subject.

—Henry Ward Beecher has lately been pitching into the practice of working railroad conductors on Sunday. The other day Mr. Beecher, in his peculiar way, was making inquiries of a conductor, to whom he was unknown, as to whether the Sunday riding could not be broken up. "I think it might be," said the conductor, "but for that confounded fellow, Beecher. So many fancy people from all parts visit his establishment that it makes the road profitable. If he would only shut up the thing could be done."

—There is a mania for camping out prevailing among the New England people.—On the grounds near the Atlantic House, Hingham, Mass., are camped out a party of men, women and children, to the number of about one hundred and fifty, hailing from Nashua, N. H. At Weare River, the Massachusetts Hook and Ladder Co. of Charlestown, Mass., camped out for a week. All along shore may be seen numerous other tents of camping parties, which gives the whole scene an appearance of a muster-field.

—The Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for the States of Missouri and Arkansas forwards to Gen. Howard an estimate of the number of rations required to be issued to whites and freedmen, respectively, during the month of September, 1866, as follows:—Whites, 35,000; freedmen, 5,000.

—Gen. Butler made a speech at Lynn the other day, in the course of which he said that if the President should actually go so far as to declare a lot of Southern traitors to be the Congress of the United States, the rising of the people after the affair of Sumter was not a circumstance to what we should see.

—The Times says that, in spite of rapidly declining rents, real estate in Richmond still hangs heavily upon the hands of its owners. Not only has the usual dullness of midsummer fallen upon all sorts of business, but the delusive and unreal indications of reviving trade and commerce which followed the fall of Richmond have passed away. The Times thinks it will take five years to restore her former prosperity to Richmond.

—In the Canadian Parliament on Wednesday, one of the members stated that the destiny of the country was inevitable; that the American people are masters of the continent to all intents and purposes, and that money spent on Canadian fortifications is money wasted. All of which is very true.

—It is now understood that Victor Hugo, when he described the Devil Fish as a monster resembling an umbrella without a handle with innumerable radii stretching out to grasp everything within reach, with no blood, no bones, no flesh, absorbing its victims into its pouch, intended to prefigure the Philadelphia Convention.

—The story that a prominent Johnson man at Saratoga carried his principles so far as to refuse to drink Congress water, probably arose from the fact that the water disagreed with him. But this is not to the discredit of the water.

—The Rev. Matthew Davenport, aged 100 years, preached a sermon recently at Okolona, Mississippi.

What General Chamberlain Says.

All must unite in demanding security for the future. We must have guaranties good and sufficient, against any future attempt to destroy this Government whether in the exercise of a pretended right by open war or BY MORE ARTFUL AND INSIDIOUS ASSAULTS against the principles on which this Nation was founded. These are points we cannot yield without danger and dishonor; and WHEN THE SOUTHERN STATES SHALL HAVE COMPLIED WITH THOSE CONDITIONS IN GOOD FAITH, they will be in a condition to ask association and fellowship with the loyal commonwealths of the country which they deserted with such violence and scorn. UNTIL THAT TIME, in my judgment, it is wise to hold them in strict probation.

"We cannot go back to gather up the fragments of the Union as it was; we must now recognize the nation as it is, and make the Constitution what it should be."

Gov. Wells on the New Orleans Massacre.

Gov. Wells of Louisiana has issued an address to the loyal people of that State, clearly showing the motives which animated the rebels in their resistance to the assembling of the Convention of 1864, and what may be expected provided the military arm of the government is not held over them for the present.

The Boston Journal condenses the report, giving the main parts interesting. It commences:—

"The bloody tragedy enacted in the city of New Orleans on the 30th of July, 1866, in which more than three hundred citizens were killed or wounded, has, to the credit of humanity, created profound sympathy in the breast of every man throughout the length and breadth of the land. The remote and immediate causes of this outrage demand a thorough investigation and explanation, and as Chief Magistrate of the State I feel a solemn duty resting on me to give a plain, unvarnished statement of its origin and progress."

The Governor proceeds to relate the facts connected with his accession to the office of Governor, through the resignation of Gov. Hahn, having been chosen Lieut. Governor in 1864, when he was a refugee from the rebel lines, by the Free State party and by the extreme radical party. After the collapse of the Confederate government, his authority extended over the whole State. In the distribution of offices in the parishes then restored to the authority of the United States, he explains the conciliatory policy which he adopted:

"Although I had been persecuted and driven from home by the rebel authorities, I suppressed all feeling of rancor to natural to the human breast under such circumstances, and a belief that a majority had been seduced from their allegiance to the old flag by wiles of artful demagogue who broke on the rebellion. I determined in winning them back to their first love. I addressed them a proclamation congratulating them on their restoration to the protection of the Government of law and order, and that as far as I was concerned I was willing to forget the past. I begged them to submit cheerfully and unreservedly to the new order of things, and assured them that although the State government had been organized, yet I was anxious that a general election for its officers, should be held, in which the whole State should participate."

In the political contest which followed, last fall, he states that it is well known that he was put at the head of the ticket simply because he could be more useful in securing a representation of the State in Congress; while the platform first reported by the Democratic Committee reiterated the doctrine of the right of secession. Notwithstanding his nomination the rebel Governor Allen was nominated by another Convention, and had he signified his willingness to accept he would no doubt have been overwhelmingly elected.

The Legislature of November, 1865, was strongly inclined to call another Convention, which was only abandoned after a delegation was sent to Washington and a consultation was had with the President. He opposed calling this Convention because he foresaw that "none but those who had served in the Confederate army, or who had gone in to the Confederate lines, would be elected to office," and this caused him "to pause and reflect on the consequence as regards the future security of the Government and the fate of the Union men in the South, if these men who once attempted to break up the Union succeeded in recovering the power of the nation again."

In commenting upon the politicians of the State who now control its destinies, he uses the following strong language, which contains more truth in it than one would expect to hear from a man in his position:

"I had seen that, while professing with their lips renewed allegiance to the flag and on obliteration of the past, which embodies the pacific policy of the President, they were becoming arrogant, intolerant and dictatorial. They glory in the apparent schism between the President and Congress in the policy of restoring the States lately in rebellion, and rub their hands with delight at the idea of a civil war in the loyal States.—In view of all this array of strong, stubborn facts, I freely acknowledge my views of a conciliatory policy, in turning back to allegiance those who have been engaged in a war to destroy the Union, have undergone a change. The intolerant spirit engendered by slavery still exists. The loss of property and the failure of hopes can never be forgiven, and though I regard them as important to resist the constituted authority enforced by the presence of the military, yet I am convinced they would renew the rebellion to-morrow if they saw a prospect of success."

Impressed with these views he regarded the reassembling of the Convention of 1864 as the only means of future security to the Union men of the South and insuring the admission of their representatives to Congress by the adoption of the Amendment to the Constitution.

On the legality of the Convention to assemble he says:

"Senators and Representatives in Congress, of great learning, and men of high legal attainments in New Orleans, have expressed the opinion that under the resolution of adjournment the Convention could lawfully assemble. A distinguished Democratic Senator in Congress took the same view.—For myself, if I had any doubt on the subject, I have deferred to the opinion of abler men."

In addition to the old Convention of one hundred and fifty delegates, sixty-one new ones were to be elected from the twenty-seven unrepresented parishes, thus giving the whole State a fair representation.

The disfranchising clauses in the Constitution of 1864 are far more tolerant toward those engaged in the rebellion than the constitutions of Missouri and Tennessee.

In commenting on the massacre which took place at the Institute, he charges the Mayor and the police with neglecting the members of the convention, who "were shot, stabbed and beaten, while in custody and in the presence of the entire police of the city."

"It is also notorious," he says, "that the police failed to arrest, or attempt to arrest, even one of the riotous citizens who, according to their oft repeated statements, were continually attacking, wounding and killing persons who had surrendered and were in their custody."

He also states that it was the deliberate object of the Mayor to break up the convention by force, and that the slaveholding aristocracy, having failed in their attempt to destroy the Government, they seek to retain political power by the same spirit of political violence by which their chiefs had sustained their supremacy before the war.

The Governor finally defines his position in the following language, which fully identifies him hereafter with the Republican party, and in opposition to the President's policy:

"My deliberate conclusion is, that if the military forces be withdrawn the lives of the Union men who proved themselves conspicuous in maintaining their allegiance will not be safe.

The ultimate security both of the Government and Union men of the South depend, in my opinion, on the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, proposed by Congress, and the enfranchisement of the loyal black man as he becomes educated and qualified for that important privilege.

If the advocacy of these measures identifies me with the Radical party, in opposition to the President, I must accept the situation. Besides, I can't change my position in respect to my feelings. I deem it necessary to preserve and perpetuate the Union. I identify me with a political party with which I am not in sympathy; and I am unwilling to do anything that would even seemingly put me in a false position upon any of the great questions at issue now before the country, or in ever so small a degree tend to weaken the earnest and undivided support which I desire to give to the cause that I adopt.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
WM. COGSWELL."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Malaria Everywhere,

Rarely has there been a season as fruitful as this of malarious diseases. Not only on the prairies and in the valleys of the West; not merely in all the old haunts of Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fever have these prostrating diseases been unusually virulent; but they have extended to towns and cities never before infested with them, and have even ascended the mountains and attacked thousands of people supposed to have been placed by the laws of Nature above their reach. Hence we are compelled to admit that a fatal element pervades the Universal Air this season, and should at once resort to the only approved preventive of its consequences,

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

a tonic so potent, an anti-septic so perfect, an alterative so irresistible, and a stimulant so pure, that it enables the human system to resist and baffle all the predisposing causes of disease. With the confidence that one clothed in incombustible garments might move among blazing buildings, the man who arms himself against malaria with this powerful defensive medicine may walk a fever-scourged district fearless of its insalubrious atmosphere. The intermittents and remittents at present so general in all parts of the country may be but the forerunners of a deadlier scourge now on its way westward from the far East. Prepare the system with for a successful battle with the mephitic causes of all epidemics. Be wise in time. Sold every where.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

Portland Fire.

From the Daily Eastern Argus, July 14.

INSURANCE.—Mr. Editor:—Much has been said heretofore in this State, to the prejudice of Foreign Insurance Companies, and at times a vigorous war has been waged against them in our Legislature.—But I think that the prompt and liberal manner in which those companies have met their liabilities in this city during the present week, must have disarmed all such opposition. Allow me to state one case within my own knowledge as an illustration: A gentleman died a few years since, leaving a widow and one child, the heir to what little property was left after paying the debts of the estate. The property consisted of a lot of land, upon which were two houses. The widow, not understanding that the fee was in the child, took out a policy of insurance for $1,000 in her own name. The fire swept the land. She went to the agent sent here to settle losses. He saw at a glance that if entitled to anything, her legal claim could only be to the amount of her interest under her right of dower, not more than $100 probably. He could not have been compelled to pay more. He merely said that his company never took advantage of any legal exemption from their liabilities where the party assured had acted in good faith, but had lost their right to enforce payment through ignorance or mistake. And he sent away the widow with a draft for sixteen hundred dollars in her pocket. This was the HOME Insurance Company of New York. And this is not the solitary instance of a noble liberality in the dealings of that Company with our citizens.

KNOWLES'
Vegetable Hair Restorer!

AS A HAIR PREPARATION this stands without a rival—has proved itself by the thousands who have tested its virtues for the past three years,

THE ONLY RELIABLE RESTORER

Of Gray, Faded, or Diseased Hair, to its original color, condition and former beauty.

It is not a Dye, being a Vegetable Compound, and not injurious in its application; but is warranted to restore Gray, Faded, or Diseased Hair to its original color in 20 days.

By its invigorating properties, promotes a luxuriant growth on Bald Heads, in all cases where such a result is possible; prevents the hair from falling off; eradicates dandruff, humors, and all other impurities from the scalp; and as a Restorer and Dressing combined, it has no equal.

The great and increasing sales of this preparation attest the high value in which it is held; and the fact that its reputation has been established solely upon its own merit and worth—the trial of a single bottle will convince the most skeptical of its virtues.

An Effectual Worm Medicine.

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness, undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The VERMIFUGE COMFITS, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child.—This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

CHILDREN HAVING WORMS require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS IN CHILDREN are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making Brown's Vermifuge Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

Recent rumors from Tampico received here, state that the French authorities, suspecting the Mexican Gen. Lamadrid, relieved him from the command of Tampico, which has been entrusted to a French officer.

The French had received small reinforcements from Vera Cruz by water.

Gen Caravajal had organized at Matamoras an expedition of 1500 strong, with view to capture Tampico.

Gen Escobedo had left Matamoras with 4,000 men for Monterey, which city he expected to have soon in his possession.

Juarez was organizing another expedition at Chihuahua to capture Durango.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.

The Herald's Mexican correspondent says,

A number of arrests have been made at Vera Cruz of alleged conspirators, among them two American citizens.

The object of the conspiracy is said to be the killing or capturing of all the French officers in Vera Cruz.

The French steamer Odenis had been sent toward the Rio Grande, probably to blockade Matamoras.

Yellow fever had almost entirely disappeared from Vera Cruz.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 11.

A man calling himself Champion, late engineer in the Navy, has been arrested on a charge of killing a girl in a house of ill fame last night. The victim's name is Mary Kearney, a native of Mount Holly, N. J. This morning a female associate of Mary Kearny described to a policeman who kept company with her (Mary Kearny). Description tallied with that given by keeper of the house. A portrait of a man was found in Mary Kearny's trunk, which was identified as a man who came to the house with the murdered girl. He is about thirty years of age. The case is now before a corner.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 11.

The alleged murderer of a woman in a bagnio is named Newton Champion. He is an ex-assistant engineer in the Navy, and was more recently employed in the gas works in this city. He has been identified by a sister of the deceased and others as keeping company with Mary Kearney for several weeks past, and quarrelling with her frequently. Two weeks since he attempted to strangle her. He displayed no emotion on being identified by the keeper of the bagnio.

OTTAWA, C. W., Aug. 11.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—Dr. Stone of Washington has been commissioned to make, in marble, a statue of Alexander Hamilton for the Capitol. An elegant statue of Hamilton in the New York Exchange was destroyed at the great fire in 1835, and though there are several busts of the great statesman and financier, we believe the only statue in existence is that on Commonwealth avenue in New York, the gift of Thomas Lee, Esq.

—The persons under sentence of imprisonment for debt at Vienna have sent a petition to the burgomaster of that capital, begging to be set at liberty during the war; any expectation of payment being hopeless during the continuance of the present state of affairs.

—Among the recent inventions in France which have been brought to light by the discussion on the needle gun, is one which fires twenty balls a minute and has a musical box in the butt, thus doing away with the necessity of regimental bands.

—A delegate to the Philadelphia Convention from Denver, Colorado, Hiram Lighbuer, a prominent citizen and politician, has been arrested for robbing the express company there of a bar of gold worth $3,000, which was found in his possession. He was committed for trial in default of $5,000 bail, and was to have started eastward on the day subsequent to the robbery.

—The Court of Quarter Sessions in Pittsburg, Pa, declared void an ordinance passed by the council of that city forbidding the erection within certain limits of buildings not entirely composed of incombustible materials.

—A private letter from Vicksburg, Miss., states that at least thirty freedmen have been murdered in that county within the last six weeks. Union men are seeking for refuge in the city because they dare not remain longer at their places in the interior.

—The St. Johns Standard asserts that the fishing in that part of the Newfoundland coast is no longer able to support the people, and that they must turn their attention to agriculture. The same paper states that the fishermen at the present time are hardly getting enough to eat.

—A platform was erected at Indianapolis on Wednesday for Senator Hendricks to make a Johnson speech on, and a suicide of eccentric tastes hung himself on it before the meeting assembled.

—As Messrs. Bowen and Decow, opposing candidates for jailor, were standing talking together one evening last week, in Mercer county, Ky., both were struck by lightning and both instantly killed.

—The President of the Colorado and California road, via the newly discovered pass, announced that the road would be completed to the top of Snowy Range by the 10th of August.

LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

DISTRICT CONVENTION. At a Mass Congressional District Convention held in this city to-day, of supporters of the war and of the re-election of President Johnson, on motion of Hon. G. G. Cushman, Hon. S. A. Pratt was chosen Chairman and M. Gilligan, Esq., Secretary. George M. Weston, Esq., of this city and B. L. Staples, Esq., of Houlton, were elected delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.—[Times.

An account might be written something like this. Seven very respectable looking gentlemen met at the back office of a notorious Copperhead of this city, and proceeded to appoint one another delegates to the Philadelphia Convention. High sounding titles are no indication of political importance.

A waggish Black Republican suggests as a singular coincidence, that just the same number were cast out of Mary Magdalen with beneficial results.

We cannot learn that there is any foundation for the rumor that the Mass Convention were invited to visit Judge Pratt's garden.

GRAND JOHNSON MOVEMENT. Flaming handbills and half an hour's dinging of the City Hall bell called out just thirty curious Black Republicans, boys and Johnsonians, to another mass convention on Saturday night. We believe a Johnson club was formed, as there were nearly enough present to fill the offices.

BURGLARY. The store of Col. Daniel White on Kenduskeag Bridge was entered on Saturday night from the rear, and goods to the amount of four or five hundred dollars carried off. The entrance was obtained through the upper window.

—At the Custom House, at ten o'clock this forenoon, there will be sold a quantity of tea, tobacco and liquor, confiscated for violation of the revenue law.

—Yesterday was one of the most salubrious days of the season.

—The President has appointed and commissioned for Collector of Customs of the District of Waldoboro, Col. James A. Hall of Damariscotta. Mr. Hall went out in the Second Maine Battery, was promoted to Lt. Colonel for meritorious conduct, and enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most gallant officers from Maine in the volunteer service. Judging from his appointment at the present crisis, his political career will be far less brilliant and creditable than his military.

—Capt. David Manchester, master of the schr. Banner of Rockland, has been arrested at St. John, N. B., for passing counterfeit money.

—The Masonic Fraternity of Eastport are about erecting a new hall. We know of a place nearer home where they need one.

—W. R. Emerson, Esq., an architect in the employ of the United States, is at Portland arranging plans for the new Custom House building.

—We regret to learn that J. M. Lincoln, Esq., of the Bath Times, is dangerously ill at Farmington.

—Wm. H. Keen of Oxford, of Co. E, 29th Maine, after having served through nearly the whole war, a few weeks since met with a fatal accident at Hilton Head, S. C. The company to which he belonged was to start for home the next day, and they had been celebrating their return to home and friends by firing salutes. Young Keen had a burning fuse in his hand, which accidentally burnt it, and in suddenly throwing it from him, it fell into a large quantity of powder lying near, which exploded, wounding Keen and another member of the company, so that they both died in a few days, and severely wounding a third soldier who has since recovered.—[Oxford Democrat.

MAINE HISTORICAL SOCIETY. At the late Commencement at Bowdoin College the following gentlemen were elected Resident Members, on nomination by the Standing Committee, viz.:—Hon. John A. Peters, Bangor; Rev. Benjamin Tappan, Norridgewock; Dr. Jotham Donnell, Houlton; Hon. Bernard C. Bailey, Bath; Woodbury C. Davis, Portland; Dr. Moses R. Ludwig, Thomaston; Charles E. Swan, Esq., Calais; George E. B. Jackson, Esq., Portland.

"KIND O' G'IN OUT!" The great Johnson district convention, called in this paper last week by three gentlemen of Waterville—namely, Solyman Heath, Esq., formerly a whig-republican-democratic-no-party man Ira R. Doolittle, Esq., an anti-something man, and Dudley M. Moor, Esq., son of a democrat-that-was—seems to have so fallen out by the way that we are unable to report its doings. We traced it to the doorway of Town Hall, where it disappeared on four pairs of legs, under a motion to "adjourn to Heath's office". From this time and place it became a private institution and we lost its track. It will, no doubt be reported in flaming capitals by the democratic and copperhead papers; and henceforth the porringers of the four gentlemen above named will stand right side up for such donations as Mr. Johnson may have to spare.—[Waterville Mail.

COL. HIRAM ROLLINS. At the recent Democratic Convention here the name of Lt.-Col. Hiram Rollins, recently of the V. R. Corps, was included in the list of recent Republicans who have joined the Johnson Democratic-Conservative party. Col. Rollins is very indignant at this misrepresentation. He has not nor does he intend to join the forces of the enemy. While there is a rebel left North or South, he is in for the cause of Republicanism against the foe.—The bullet wounds in his body (the work of rebels), and the remembrance of the hard fought political and military battles of the past and the cause he served during the war, he considers too important to forget, and while he has a spark of loyalty left he will not desert the flag and the Republican party. His name was, in fact, used without his consent and the information given is untrue.—[Portland Cor. Boston Jour.

A gentleman from Washington who has been rusticating in this city for the past fortnight, informs us that he is surprised to find himself unable to discover a single Johnson man among the farmers of our county, except among those persons who opposed the government during the rebellion. It must be refreshing to a gentleman accustomed to breathe the office-seeking atmosphere of Washington, to come to Maine and enjoy the pure and manhood inspiring air of the hills of free Maine.—[Lewiston Jour.

—The crops in this section never looked more promising than now. The frequent rains and warm weather have given to gardens, fields and trees, that deep and lively green of spring. If we have no early frosts the people of Aroostook will be blest with an abundance of every kind that her soil produces. If there is any scarcity in the hay crop, the great amount of fall feed promise will make up the deficiency.—[Aroostook Pioneer.

—Lincoln County Union Convention will meet in Newcastle August 21st.

—It seems to be well understood by those in a position to judge correctly that the European Railway from Bangor to the boundary line will be built at no distant period.—The arrangements are made, the capital assured, and the parties most interested are able and have fully determined that the enterprise shall be completed.—[Ken. Jour.

PASTORAL CALL. We learn that the Congregational society at South Paris have extended an invitation to Rev. Mr. Knowlton of Farmington to become its pastor, and that a letter has been received from him accepting the call. Mr. K. is a graduate of Bangor Seminary, and has preached at Phillips during the past year.

—There are several carrier doves at Sabattus, which are killing time and space. One of them flew from this city home in six minutes—a mile a minute. The birds unerringly skim their way homeward, however so far carried away.—[Lewiston Journal.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING. A house situated about three miles from Dover Village, near the road running from Bran's Mills, and owned by Mr. Simon Bryer, was struck by lightning during the shower of Sunday morning last.—[Observer.

—The Journal says that Rev. H. O. Thayer of South Paris, ordained week before last, at Bangor, will settle with the church at Solon and Bingham.

—Hon. Abner Coburn proposes to give a small island in the Kennebec at Skowhegan to that town for public purposes.

—The Knox County Republican Convention will meet in Rockland on the 23d of August.

—The city of Charleston, S. C., has not made so much progress in rebuilding during the last fourteen months as Portland has during the last five weeks. Cause—want of energy.

To Soldiers and Seamen!!

The Law Has Passed!

Bounties Equalized.

Justice Done the Early Soldiers and Seamen of the War, their Widows and Heirs.

NOTICE has been sent me from Washington, that the Law equalizing the bounty to Soldiers and Seaman was passed Saturday last, July 28th, by Congress.

I am now authorized and prepared to collect this Bounty for every Soldier and Seaman entitled, also for their Widows and Heirs.

Application made personally at my office, or by mail,—the discharge of the Soldier or Seaman should be handed in—as it must be forwarded with the application.

All applications must be made signed, witnessed and sworn to, AFTER THE PASSAGE OF THIS LAW. Many soldiers have been induced to sign papers before the law passed. This practice is irregular, fraudulent and void, and papers in all such cases must be made over.

THE MUTUAL
Life Insurance Co.,
OF NEW YORK.
Assets over $16,000,000!

TO meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amount insured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agreeing that in lieu of the payment of the policy and profits in one sum, an equitable amount, to be determined by the Company, may be paid annually or semi-annually for any specified number of years, (say from five to twenty-five years,) if desired.

EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000, with additions amounting to $5000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the person insured, the Company, in lieu of the payment of $15,000 in one sum, would be able to give (assuming interest as realized in the past) an annuity for ten years of over $2000 per annum, or for twenty years an annuity of over $1500 per annum.

This form of annuity will remove the anxiety which may exist in the minds of some policy-holders lest the future provision they have made for their families should be ineffectual or transitory in its duration, either through unsafe investments, unwise expenditure, or other uncertainties incidental to continent trusts.

It is not only free from the ordinary dangers of investment, but its punctual and full payment is secured by the LARGE AND SOLID CASH RESOURCES and good faith of this institution, which thus, to ascertain extent, becomes the GUARDIAN or TRUSTEE of the survivors. Hence the provision may be considered humanly speaking, beyond any adverse contingency.

All such deferred payments or annuities will share equitably in the profits or dividends of the Company.

This Company also issues SURVIVORSHIP ANNUITIES, which provide for survivors during the whole period of life, and DEFERRED ANNUITIES, by which individuals may provide for themselves in advanced age.

EXTEMPORIZING. Dr. Spring, in his reminiscences, advocates extemporaneous preaching, as do most of the older ministers who have followed a different method, when they give counsel to their younger brethren. He gives a pleasant account of one of his first attempts at extemporizing:

In returning to New York from an annual visit to my parents in Newburyport, I passed the Sabbath at the town of Ashford in Conn. It was a habit of New England to observe the Sabbath 'from evening to evening.' I had not much the appearance of a clergyman, and as I dismounted, inquired if I could have accommodations for myself and for my horse on the Lord's day. After supper the landlord said to me:

'Pray sir are you not a clergyman?'

'I am a clergyman.'

'Because, if you are a minister, I think our parson would be glad to have you preach for him. He will be over to-night to see you.'

Soon the settled pastor came, and was introduced to me. He is one of the best men, the Rev. Mr. Judson, though we were then perfect strangers.

'I understand that you are a minister of the Gospel, and propose to pass the Sabbath with us.'

'Th at is my character, and such is my purpose.'

'I should be happy to ask you to preach for me, if I knew who and what you are.'

'As to what I am, I am no Methodist, no Baptist, no Unitarian; as to who I am, you will remain ignorant. I came here a stranger, and such mean to remain.'

'But will you favor me with your name?'

'Excuse me, I have reasons for desiring to remain unknown.'

Mr. Judson was embarrassed, but eventually requested me to occupy the pulpit, which I consented to do on condition that he would not ask my name. He gave his assent, and I preached for him. My sole object in wishing to remain unknown, was to ascertain whether I could preach without notes, with unembarrassed freedom, before an unknown audience. And the experiment was full of encouragement. I preached in the morning from the text, 'The law was our schoolmaster, to bring us unto Christ;' in the afternoon from the words, 'Unto you therefore, who believe, He is precious.' I never preached better, nor to a more attentive and affected audience. I left town at the going down of the sun, unknown by a single individual. Mr. Judson, though I took tea with him, did not ask for my name.

Some years after he was present at an evening service in the Old Brick Church, and taking me by the hand, said, 'Do you remember the Sabbath at Ashford? It was a memorable day to us. That day God made bare his arm; it was the beginning of a work of grace among my people.'

THE FOLLOWING INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF CAPTAIN SCOTT. "Like other boys, young Scott was very fond of visiting places of amusement, such as horse races, trainings, town meetings, etc., and as he was a good rider, he was sometimes selected to ride races by the sporting fraternity of that section.

In those days (before the time of horse fairs) horse racing was looked upon by the New Englanders as a most, immoral and pernicious practice, and young Scott was never allowed to make his appearance at such places without his father's consent.

Upon one occasion an unknown horse was brought to Bennington by some sportsmen, who offered large wagers upon his running against any other horse that could be produced. Now a certain Deacon B——of that place was owner of several fine horses, and among them was one that was considered very fleet; but those disposed to contest the wager so confidentially offered on the strange horse were perfectly well aware that a Presbyterian deacon could not openly sanction and give countenance to such diabolical immorality; yet those who knew him well verily believed if there was any one trait in the deacon's character that was not in strict accordance with the requirements of the church and with the sanctity of his ecclesiastical functions, it was the weakness he manifested for owning the fleetest horse in the country.

The men proposing to take up the gauntlet so defiantly thrown out by the backers of the new horse entered the deacon's favorite horse for the race, but with the express stipulation that the race should come off in the night-time, and should be kept a profound secret, except to those directly interested. The terms having been satisfactorily arranged, Martin Scott was selected as the jockey for the deacon's horse; and on the night designated for the contest, he stole very quietly into the stable, and muffling the horse's feet, led him out and took him to the race track. The judges were then posted, the riders mounted, and the horses were off. It was a single straight dash of a mile, and both horses were put to their speed, and kept constantly down to their work from the word 'go.' But, as they approached the 'coming-out' place, the strange horse began to gain a little upon his antagonist, and at this moment of interest and excitement to all parties concerned, it looked as if the deacon's horse was to be beaten, when suddenly from behind a board fence near the track jumped up Deacon B——him self, who in a very loud and excited manner, screamed out, 'put the whip to him, Martin! put the whip to him, I tell you!' Martin was perfectly astounded, and almost paralyzed at this unexpected apparition, but, with nervous desperation, he made several vigorous and well-timed applications of his whip, which caused the horse to redouble his efforts and win the race by half a length, at which the deacon, in the excitement of the moment, took off his hat and gave a lusty cheer; but instantly afterward recollecting himself, and considering the ludicrous role he had been enacting in this somewhat farcical performance, he assumed an indignant air, and approaching Martin, who was holding the horse in great trepidation, said, Martin Scott, you young reprobate, you have stolen my horse, sir, and unless you instantly lead him back to the stable, and give him a good rubbing down, I'll report to your father, sir.

Nuts have sometimes been found so tight that no wrench would remove them. This is because they had been held in the hand till they became warm, and being then applied to very cold screws in winter, they contracted by cooling while on, and thus held the screw with an immovable grasp. Always avoid putting a warm nut on a cold screw; and to remove it, apply a large heated iron in contact with the nut, so as to heat and expand it and it will loosen at once—or a cloth wet with boiling water will accomplish the same purpose.

ADVERTISING. A few years ago a man in Hartford was keeping a modest shoe store in State street. A few days ago one of the Hartford papers published a list of real estate purchased within a few weeks by this shoe dealer—the purchase money amounting in the aggregate to over $60,000. From items of his previous purchases, he was already known as a real estate owner to a large amount. He still keeps that unpretending shoe store. How has he made his fortune? Advertising! This is the whole secret. He had advertised far and wide; advertised by the column. By his own or borrowed brains he made his advertisements so readable that often they were the most literary productions in the paper. He kept his name before the people, the people have bought his goods, and he is now a wealthy man. The New Haven Register says: We have a similar example, in a different line of trade, in this city. A young man came here with a few hundred dollars, and opened a store 17x18 feet, but brought with him what was more valuable—thorough knowledge of his business and of the value of advertising. He now owns largely in real estate, is sound for we don't know how many thousand, and is still enlarging his business and carrying it on with an energy and success which cannot fail to place him high on the roll of the income tax list. True his advertising expenses for the year were some $6,000, but no one can visit his establishment without seeing that it pays

CONSTITUTION
LIFE SYRUP.
A positive and specific remedy for all disease originating from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.
L
SCROFULA, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS,
STRUMA, KING'S EVIL,
ULCERATION, SALT RHEUM
ERYSIPELAS.
This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED) filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.
RHEUMATISM.
If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or virulent, of twenty or thirty years standing have been cured.
I
NERVOUSNESS.
Nervous Debility, Shattered Nerves,
St. Vitus' Dance, Loss of Power,
Confusion of Thought, Epilepsy.
Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering women will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfils more than in promise
MERCURIAL DISEASES.
Salivation, Rotting of Bones,
Bad Complexion, Aches in Bones,
Feeling of Weakness Depression of Spirits.
F
CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.
CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP
Eradicates; root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases, of the Skin like ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.
E
CURES ALL SWELLING OF THE GLANDS,
Either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.
S
All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsey of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsey of the Ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.
Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands of the body, will be completely reduced without resorting to the knife, or operations of any kind.
Y
Epileptic Fits, Sympathetic or Organic Disease of the Heart, as palpitation, Disease of the Valves drowing a grating or filing sound, Dropsey of the Heart, Case and all the affections of this important organ (persons suffering from any acute pain in the region of the heart), will be greatly relieved by Constitution Life Syrup.
BROKEN DOWN AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS SUFFERING FROM INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, PAIN IN THE BACK, LOSS OF MEMORY, FORBODINGS, HORROR OF CATAMITY, FEAR OF DISEASE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DRY HOT SKIN AND EXTREMITIES, WANT OF SLEEP, RESTLESSNESS, PALE, HAGGARD COUNTENANCE, AND LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, all require the aid of the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.
R
FOR ALL FORMS OF Ulcerative Diseases,
Either of the NOSE, THROAT, TONGUE, SPINE, FOREHEAD or SCALP, no remedy has ever proved its equal.
MOTH PATCHES upon the female face depending upon the diseased action of the liver, are very unpleasant to the young wife and mother. A few bottles of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP, will correct the secretion, and remove the deposit which is directly under the skin.
In the diseases of the Liver, giving rise to Langour, Dizziness, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, or an ulcerated or cancerous condition of that organ, accompanied with burning or other unpleasant symptoms, will be relieved by the use of CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.
U
☞ AS A GENERAL BLOOD PURIFYING AGENT THE LIFE SYRUP STANDS UNRIVALLED BY ANY PREPARATION IN THE WORLD.
THE RICH AND POOR
are liable to the same diseases. Nature and Science has made the CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP for the benefit of all.
PURE BLOOD
Produces healthy men and women; and if the constitution is neglected in youth, disease and early death is the result.

NICHOLS HOUSE.
The undersigned having leased, for a long term, and thoroughly renovated and refitted the NICHOLS HOUSE (late "Drisko House") in Bangor, has this day re-opened the same to the public accommodation.
This Hotel is centrally located, and in close proximity with the Boats and Cars.
The Proprietor has had a long experience in the "Parker House," of East Corinth, and the "Shaw House," of Newport, and flatters himself that to all patrons he will furnish an agreeable and comfortable home. Every effort and expense will be used to make this House as popular and attractive as any in this section of the State.
☞ Livery Stable connected with the House.
☞ Coaches in readiness for any business at all hours.
Stages leave this House daily for all parts of the country.

BARRETT'S
THE
BR
is creating a sensation among the friends of those who have had their gray hair restored to its youthful color, and those whose bald heads have been covered with a luxuriant growth of hair. It so changes and improves their looks that intimate acquaintances scarcely recognize each other. For sale by druggists, of whom circulars can be obtained containing testimony to prove what we have intimated.
Home Proof.
MR. BARRETT:
DEAR SIR,—Having used a bottle of your "VEGETABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE" after having tried many other kinds without success, I am happy to accord to it the ne plus ultra of all Hair Preparations in the world, and do myself sincerely and cheerfully recommend it to the public as such.
Yours, &c., JOHN FRANKLIN,
No. 6 Tremont street, Boston.
Testimony from Abroad.
MESSRS. J. R. BARRETT & Co:
I was induced by a friend to make a trial of BARRETT'S VEGETABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, and I am very much pleased with the effect it has had on my hair. I was nearly half gray, and now, before using one bottle, my head is free from dandruff, and my hair has all the appearance of youth. I fully believe BARRETT'S to be the best Hair Preparation in the world. WM. HAMILTON.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.
No. 78 State Street, (opposite Kilby street,) Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington. No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS; every one of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse." CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can not employ a man more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. DR. LAROOKAH'S
Sarsaparilla Compound,
For the Speedy and Permanent Cure of Liver Complaints, Scrofula or King's Evil, Eruptions, and all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches and Boils, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains in the Bones, Side and Head, for the various Weaknesses to which Females are liable; Dyspepsia, Debility, Emaciation, Dropsy, and all diseases resulting from or in an impure state of the Blood.
IT is invaluable to Nervous Sufferers, and a positive cure for Palsy arising from the abuse of Mercury or Lead.
It is a Tonic as well as an Alterative, and a sure protection from attacks that originate in change of climate, season or life.
LIVER COMPLAINTS and their combined symptoms, such as Lumbago, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Bilious Eruptions, &c. When caused by Scrofula taint, this compound is a most effectual remedy.
DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, is often caused by Scrofula, which deranges the stomach, and renders it unhealthy. Indigestion is not always caused by Scrofula, when it is, this Sarsaparilla Compound is a ready cure.
NEURALGIA, HEADACHE and various disorders of the nervous system frequently arise from a low state of the constitutional health, and are much relieved and often cured by this powerful remedy.
ERYSIPELAS, Boils, Tumors, or Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Sores, &c. Moderate doses three times a day will usually effect the cure of the above complaints, but often requires considerable time.
Price one dollar per bottle. Six bottles for five dollars.
DR. LAROOKAH'S
ALL-CONQUERING
INDIAN VEGETABLE PULMONIC SYRUP,
A Sovereign Remedy for Coughs Colds, Bronchitis Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat & Lungs.
Unsurpassed by any Medical Discovery in the World. DR. E. R. KNIGHTS, Proprietor.
Melrose, Mass.
Price 50 Cents and $1.00 per Bottle.
DR. KNIGHTS'
Oriental Hair Restorer.
After a long series of experiments, this article, as it is now offered to the public, is believed to be the most perfect of its kind which science has ever devised. No pains have been spared to produce what has so long been demanded by thousands, who, from sickness or other causes, have become prematurely grey; and others, who, in the sere and yellow leaf of life, would retain, as far as possible, the semblance of youth. DR. KNIGHTS' ORIENTAL HAIR RESTORER, after a few applications, restores grey or faded hair to its original color, and is the only preparation of the kind upon which the public can place any reliance. It has never been known to fail in a single instance, and is totally unlike the thousand and one so-called Hair Restorers, by which so many have been egregiously deceived.
It is delightfully perfumed, gives the hair a rich and glossy appearance, promotes its luxuriant growth, and will not soil the skin, scalp, or any article of apparel.
PRICE 75 CENTS PER BOTTLE.
